

Purpose and Need

The High Plains Road Extension Project is critical to connect southern Cheyenne to I-25, support economic development, improve safety and efficiency, and meet state and local transportation planning goals.

Improve East–West Connectivity

Support Economic Development & Growth

Complete Roadway Network & Enhance Safety

Coordinate Infrastructure Expansion

Leverage Planned Interchange & Long-Term Planning

Meet City of Cheyenne, WYDOT, and FHWA Goals

